Bachelor's thesis title in English:

Classification of Journalistic Quality of Articles

Bachelor's thesis title in Czech:

Klasifikace žurnalistické kvality článků

Guidelines:

Study the issue of classifying the journalistic quality of articles using NLP technologies. Propose a classifier aimed at reducing the exposure of low-quality articles on the homepage of Seznam.cz. Implement chosen algorithms and create tests to estimate the classification accuracy. Initial data set will be provided. The main ambition is to achieve better results than the existing solution (will be provided: a simple text-based model evaluating the article's content) in order to potentially replace human editors.
